Harden is a 3 hour drive from Sydney, just over 90 minutes from Canberra and half an hour from Young. Harden is also a stop on the Melbourne to Sydney train route.

Full of old-world charm and historical landmarks, the twin towns of Harden and Murrumburrah are brimming with gold rush heritage and surrounded by the vineyards and cellar doors of the Hilltops. The twin towns are a great base to explore the wineries and orchards of the Young region, Australia's cherry capital.

Harden's vibrant town centre, north of the Highway, is the commercial precinct of the twin towns. The newly landscaped main street has dramatic groups of mature date palms, and shade trees framing attractive Federation era and
